

Guidance notes for the Graduate Profile Outcomes

New Zealand Certificate in Youth Work (Level 3)

Graduates of this qualification will be able to:		Guidance for Programme owners and developers
1	Support young people using a youth development approach Credit 30	The Youth Work sector expects that programmes will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - strengths-based approach - youth engagement models - positive community connections - developing supportive relationships with young people - upholding and honouring the history of Māori as tangata whenua - tikanga and kawa - interconnectedness between individuals and whānau - human development theory - learner's personal journey and its influence on relationship-building - developing intentional relationships with young people - introduction to self-reflective practice - appropriate communication skills - youth identity and culture, issues, boundaries, risk and behaviour.
2	Contribute to youth development projects Credit 25	The Youth Work sector expects that programmes will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - assisting with planning, implementation and evaluation of projects - safety and risk management processes - group work - teamwork - leadership styles and models - knowledge and skills required to reflect cultural and social aspirations of the potential communities being served e.g. Māori; Pasifika; refugee.

Source: CareerForce Guideline Documents